Fairfield Beach Residents Association Newsletter

COASTAL FLOOD WARNING TONIGHT

Possibility of flooding - Veterans park available for people who want to move thier cars

All: the NWS has posted a Coastal Flood Warning for the 1:29 am high tide Tuesday morning. The severity of the flooding will be determined by the timing of easterly winds and gusts. Minor to Moderate Flooding is predicted. Residents in the low-lying shoreline areas that frequently flood are advised to move cars to higher ground. Flooding is expected to cause temporary road closures around the time of high tide. Fairfield Veterans Memorial Park on Reef Road is available for overnight parking.

A FairfieldAlert text will be sent to coastal residents.

CLAM JAM

Clam Jam is set for Saturday April 30th.

The university has set up the same parameters as in the last few years. Gates open at 11 AM and the event closes at 4 PM. They will again have a fenced area near Durrell Center. The event is limited to juniors and seniors, and they must have tickets. There will be music, food and libations.

DPW has been hired to clean up the venue, FPD, FFD, G-Force and University staff and the University's Department of Public Safety DPS will be working the event. University staff will assist with clean up at the venue.

Fairfield University has established an online system for residents to report any concerns over the coming months. It can be done anonymously or signed by the resident. Report linked below:

Aquarion offers discounted Rain barrels for CT residents

Order your rain barrel today!

Save water, save money with Aquarion's discounted rain barrel program! Collect and store water for your garden every time it rains—with a barrel designed to fit under your downspout and catch rainwater running off your roof.

ORDER HERE

For only $75, Connecticut customers can purchase a high-quality, 60-gallon upcycled rain barrel designed to fit under a downspout and catch rainwater running off of the roof. Customers can collect and store water for use in a garden whenever it rains. It takes just one quarter-inch of rainfall on an average roof to fill the barrel and provide water to use during dry periods, even when restrictions are imposed on water usage. The usage of rain barrels can help conserve water and reduce water bills.

Key Features:

- 60-gallon food-grade upcycled rain barrel with brass spigot
- Removable intake screen keeps insects and debris from entering
- Overflow directs water away from the foundation
- Connects to drip irrigation, soaker or garden hoses
- Terra cotta color prevents light transmission & inhibits algae growth
- Easy to set up and use – screw off top for easy cleaning
- Join multiple barrels for extra capacity

Customers can order barrels online at www.aquarionwater.com/rainbarrels. Orders must be received by May 6, 2022. Pickup locations will be subject to COVID-19 restrictions.

Barrels will be available for pickup Saturday, May 14

- Fairfield, CT - at Fairfield Town Hall Campus, 725 Old Post Road - 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.
