CORRECTION UPDATE ON PENFIELD PAVILLION

Please note the meeting room change. We encourage people to join via Zoom

Many beach area residents have questions about what is happening with Penfield and how much will it all cost. Interested residents can join the Flood and Erosion Control Board in their regular meeting on Tuesday December 13th at 7 pm where this item will be on the agenda.

The Flood and Erosion Control Board will hold a Public Meeting at 7 PM on Tuesday December 13, 2022 in the Second Floor Conference room of the OLD TOWN Hall. This will be a hybrid meeting also taking place via a Zoom link that allows viewing on your computer or by simple phone dial-in.

To Join Zoom Meeting, copy/paste this link in your browser:

Reduce , Reuse, Recycle –a new range of recycling options you might not have known about

Ever wonder what should go in your blue bin versus what should not? Did you know the town accepts your used electronics, your old motor oil and can also take old pillows, old shoes and even stuffed animals for recycling? Come learn about the NEW food waste drop off program and how glass gets recycled in Fairfield as well as how to better manage your trash.

MAIN FAIRFIELD LIBRARY - December 12; from 6 - 7 PM

PLEASE RSVP to ensure there are enough people to hold the session

Please call before you come as the meeting might be cancelled as not very many people signed up

About the FBRA:

Founded in 1955, the Fairfield Beach Residents Association is a 501(c)4 advocacy organization comprised of homeowners from the Old Post Road south to Fairfield Beach Road west to the end of the road, and Reef Road east to Beach Road. The FBRA aims to: Represent and implement the interests and desires of the membership in maintaining and improving Fairfield Beach and vicinity; promote cooperation among the owners and renters; represent the common interests of the membership in relation to governmental authorities; and provide for the mutual assistance, enjoyment, and quality of life for all people residing in the Fairfield Beach area.
