Fairfield Beach Residents Association Newsletter

COASTAL FLOOD WARNING

The storm forecast for Thurs/Fri this week will bring the risk of coastal flooding. We recommend cars in flood prone areas be relocated to higher ground on the morning of Dec 23. Residents who may be traveling should prepare in advance if they will be away on Friday. High tide is at 10:43am. Veterans Park on Reef Road or the Train Station Parking lot are good alternatives.

Thank you and enjoy the holidays!

Have a Happy and Safe Holiday

Today is the winter solstice - Celebrate the fewest hours of sunlight in the whole year, making it the “shortest day” of the year--We often think of the winter solstice as an event that spans an entire calendar day, but the solstice actually lasts only a moment. Specifically, it’s the exact moment when our northern hemisphere is tilted as far away from the Sun as it can be, that moment will be .4:48 P.M. EST.
